Gracious and Eternal God, you have raised up your name and your word above all things. Your love endures forever in our lives and in a world that is troubled. Even though we often venture off of the path to which you have called us, we know that you draw us back to you because of your great love. Lord, we pray that you would continue to deepen our sense of your presence in our lives, so that we might always seek to reveal your glory. Amen.
