Prayer of Confession

Father of life, we know that you see all and know everything. We know that there is nothing that happens outside of your sight. So you already know what it is in our lives that we need to confess to you. You know the ways that we have fallen short of living a life that represents you and reveals your love and grace. We ask your forgiveness and pray that you would renew us once again to do the work of your kingdom. Help us to be steadfast in living our lives in service to you. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.
